FEATURE WON BY TRIAL BY JURY

Cassatt Colt Beats the Famous
Pebbles in Chappaqua
Handicap at Belmont.

GNAT LANDS THE FIRST

Belmont Park, July 15.—Trial by Jury romped home an easy winner in the Chappaqua handicap. Belmont Park today and did the romping so surprisingly that those who saw his last few starts wondered when and where he found the speed. Before Trial by Jury scampered over the line the race looked to be at the mercy of Pebbles, the fast Ben Brush colt belonging to James Butler. Pebbles was so alluring that the spectators were glad to get 7 to 10 for their money.

None gave Trial by Jury the scantiest consideration, but when the field slipped past the half-mile pole the Cassatt colt was out in front. Turning into the home stretch Turner started to hustle Pebbles a little faster, for Trial by Jury wasn't showing the slightest sign of weakening. Pebbles, however, couldn't overhaul the running leader, and had to suffer defeat.

The Butler colors managed to earn a set of bridle when Gnat, well-played choice, came home with the bells jingling in the final event. Summary:
